PRESIDENT'S REPORT

We have a fantastic group and I want to thank everyone for making it so ... for turning up and enjoying yourselves, for our dedicated conveners, for all those who help-out in other ways and especially for the rest of the Management Committee who have supported me this year.

I have enjoyed the adventure of being president so will stand again next year if you want me.

Please think about the AGM early in the new year and the possibility of joining us on the committee. With only 7 on the committee this year it has been a bit light on especially when one or two can't make it. We all have lots of other commitments in our lives.

The new double sink is in place and the partition to divide off the men's toilet should be finished this week. This means that from now on paint brushes should be washed here not in the kitchen sink. Please use rags to remove most of the paint and oil paint should be washed off at home.

We obtained a grant from council to cover most of the cost of this work. Next year with the help of my husband Merv, we will apply for a grant to paint the building.

And so, all is well ... I hope to see you at the Christmas Party! Imagine what fun it would be if EVERYONE came!

I wish you all a Very Merry Christmas! Mary.

BUILDING MATTERS

It's amazing what a few repairs and a coat of paint can do. While not the "HILTON" our amenities have scrubbed up very well.

Please ensure all taps are properly turned off as the tap in the gents was left running the other week.

With regard to security in the toilets, please exercise due diligence and make sure that it is all locked when you leave the studio.

The air conditioning is now set for the summer months.

Regards Derek Johnston

FRIDAY LUNCH AT THE STUDIO

On the last Friday of the month after the morning life session, join us for a BYO LUNCH. Enjoy a lovely, social lunch as it's a great way to relax and enjoy everybody's company in an informal way. Everyone is welcome ... just come along and join in. Need more info? email Kim Woolley art@kimwoolley.com

GERMAN BACKPACKERS

Tuesday morning with a difference!

On that Tuesday morning I just happened to be sitting in the studio opposite the back door and I saw these people walk past the back door towards the toilet block. I thought "Oh well, it happens. People occasionally use the toilets when they are unlocked". But then they were toing and froing, so I stepped outside and asked if I could help them. He had had his shower and so I said she may as well have one too but that he needs to stand guard on the men's loo door. I said, "It's only cold water but at least you will feel fresh". "Oh no, it's a hot shower" they said. (Maybe that was just the sun heating the water pipes. Mary said the hot water has been cut off.)

They were invited in to join us for morning tea. After a little time, they did join us and offered a packet of chocolate biscuits which they insisted on contributing. They were a very interesting young couple.

Lin Hives, Tuesday Convenor.

ADDITIONAL NOTE FROM LIN.

No, I don't know what app the young German couple were using to find our shower/toilets, but the guy showed me his phone screen to show me he was speaking the truth. While later making their coffees in our kitchen, before joining us in the tea room, the young guy typed his reply into his app that this site is no longer available for free camping.

It all appeared very legitimate! They seemed very genuine people. They were very apologetic but very grateful for the shower.

AND ... ANOTHER ADDITION.

Hi again Trevor,

Just another add-on to the story. After our group this Tuesday was discussing our German visitors of last week - it took a long time for our visitors to come the distance from the showers to the kitchen that day, so they must have walked via Woollies in order to contribute to our morning tea.

We theorise that there is no way that they would keep a packet of chocolate coated biscuits (in good condition) in a four-wheel drive vehicle without the "melt", and our visitors were travelling and living in their vehicle. As I said before, we had plenty of food, but they were insistent that the biscuits be opened.

Lin Hives, Tuesday Convenor.

PS. As Lin didn't take a photo of the couple I took the liberty and added something from the net to give the story some colour. Trevor.
